

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3045 - HB 3574

February 24, 2006

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes the Commissioner of General Services to establish procedures for the State to purchase goods and services from a list of vendors that are identified through the competitive bid process.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- The Department of General Services currently awards contracts on the basis of a discount from a published catalog.
- There may be a reduction in the amount of administrative time used in the bid process for procurement of goods and services by utilizing a list of vendors that have been identified through the competitive bidding process. Any such reduction in expenditures is estimated to be not significant.
